

Unhappy with the shape of human rights in the world? Are you a problem solver with a passion for education and global justice issues?

Become a trustee of 80:20

BOARD MEMBER RECRUITMENT

80:20 is a not-for-profit NGO that advances human rights and development education in Ireland and internationally. 80:20 aims to achieve this through advocacy, research, publications, digital platforms, training and 'educational activism' interventions.

 www.8020.ie

80:20 is seeking new volunteer board members with specific experience and skills to lead and/or support in the following areas

- Finance
- Governance
- Business development
- Strategic Planning
- Youth work
- Education
- Human resources
- Media/communication
- Adult education
- Community education

Previous voluntary experience serving on a Board or Committee is desirable.

Further information and application form contact chair@8020.ie

Closing date for completed applications

5:00pm (Irish time) November 29th, 2024.

80:20 is committed to fostering an inclusive environment, and welcomes and encourages applicants from minority backgrounds who can contribute unique viewpoints and experiences that reflect our increasingly diverse community*